

NICO SARRO

On a French rock scene Nico SARRO is a kind of UFO

A timbre of voice with original and catchy melodies, a rich and intense rock, and lyrics on the edge, which do not exhaust themselves from the first listen.

Live, the band is one and the voice of Nico Sarro multiplies an unsuspected energy.

Accompanied by Nicolas Gamet on drums, Joris Perrin on guitar and Maxime Ravier on bass, Nico Sarro is currently releasing a new album entitled «Off the greed»

Nico Sarro turned around the 4 juries of The Voice. He made his singularity heard by six million viewers, and received the support of thousands of people following his appearances on the show...

"Me, there's a guy I listened to a lot, it's Jeff Buckley, it's really a period of my life and I will always have that thing in me. When I take myself Buckley without it being an imitation. When I take myself Freddie Mercury without impersonation... It's you! I heard a singular guy, with a bit of Freddie, a bit of Buckley. you bluffed me on the high notes. It's only happiness, so thank you from the bottom of my heart."

Vianney

"You have the maturity, the madness, and you blew us away: behind pah pah how do you put the notes up there..."

Him, he's a fucking singer" Florent Pagny

" We feel that it's your music, that you put a lot of soul into it, the singing was impeccable, you managed to find the big common denominator and that's not given to everyone" Marc Lavoine

"Very stunning as a performance, especially full of emotion and embodied moreover, you were free, frankly, bravo!" Amel Bent
